RE: We Invite Your Responses to Our Fully-Documented January 5, 2015 Letter to President Obama Requesting Reconsideration & Withdrawal of his Nomination of U.S. Attorney Lynch to be Attorney General Based on Documentary Evidence of her Corruption – & Referral of What She & Other U.S. Attorneys Have Been “Sitting On” to the Justice Department’s Public Integrity Section of its Criminal Division

Enclosed is the Center for Judicial Accountability’s self-explanatory January 5, 2015 letter to President Obama – to which you are indicated recipients.

We invite U.S. Attorney Lynch’s response – and responses from her fellow U.S. Attorneys Bharara and Hartunian. However, we also invite responses from the Senate Judiciary Committee, both its now majority Republican side and its now minority Democratic side, specifically to that portion of the letter as relates to its vetting and hearing procedures and which states:

“...the press has yet to report to the American People – that the Senate Judiciary Committee’s own vetting is a fiction and its confirmation hearings essentially rigged to ensure confirmation, which it does by excluding opposition testimony from members of the public having dispositive evidence of nominee unfitness, such as corruption and ethics breaches.

At bar, NO Senator can vote for U.S. Attorney Lynch’s confirmation based on the evidence here presented.” (at p. 3, capitalization in the original).

In that connection, we have yet to receive any response from the Senate Judiciary Committee to our December 17, 2014 letter to it pertaining to our citizen opposition to Ms. Lynch’s confirmation, other than a generic, automated e-mail acknowledgment of receipt, which was solely from the then minority Republican side. A copy is enclosed.

Subject: Thank you for your recent contact

Thank you for taking the time to contact the Judiciary Committee's Republican Oversight and Investigations staff. Your email has been received and will be reviewed. If you are a constituent of Senator Grassley's from Iowa, please also send a copy of your message to the personal office at the following link to ensure that you receive a reply:

<http://www.grassley.senate.gov/constituents/questions-and-comments>

Unfortunately, if you are not a constituent, you may not receive an individual response due to the high volume of emails from around the country and the office's limited resources. You may wish to consider contacting your home state senators: http://www.senate.gov/general/contact\_information/senators\_cfm.cfm?OrderBy=state&Sort=ASC

We will contact you if further information is needed to inquire into the issues you have raised.

Although we cannot pursue every allegation that we receive, that does not mean your concerns may not have merit. You should consider reporting waste, fraud, abuse, or mismanagement elsewhere as well, if you have not already done so. Confidential, protected whistleblower disclosures can also be made to:

- the Office of Special Counsel (<http://www.osc.gov/wbdiscOverview.htm>)
- the Office of the Inspector General for the Department of Justice (<http://www.justice.gov/oig/hotline/>), or
- the office of inspector general at another relevant agency (<http://www.ignet.gov/igs/homepage1.html>).

If you report your concerns to one of these agencies, please let us know so that we can ensure that the agency treats it appropriately. Should you have additional information to provide, please do not hesitate to forward it to us at this email address. All disclosures are treated as protected, and none of the information will be used without consulting with you first. Thank you.
