RE: We Invite Your Responses to Our Sworn, Fully-Documented Complaint against the Senate Judiciary Committee for Fraud and Corruption with Respect to the Confirmation of U.S. Attorney Loretta Lynch as Attorney General:

Yesterday, I, as director of the Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), acting on behalf of the long-suffering People of the State of New York, the American People, and the public interest, filed a sworn, fully-documented complaint with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics against the Senate Judiciary Committee's 20 members and staff for their fraud and corruption with respect to the confirmation of U.S. Attorney Loretta Lynch as U.S. Attorney General.

You are each indicated recipients – and the reasons are set forth in the complaint itself as follows:

“If, based on this complaint, Senate Majority Leader McConnell does not remove from the Senate calendar the debate and vote on U.S. Attorney Lynch’s confirmation as Attorney General that he has since scheduled for next week – and if Senate Minority Leader Reid does not agree to his doing so – the Select Committee on Ethics must take steps to protect the American People from the corruption and fraud perpetrated by the senators and staff of the Senate Judiciary Committee that is the subject of this complaint – and without which the nomination could not have been favorably voted out of committee and put on the Senate calendar.

In keeping with CJA’s usual and customary practice of inviting responses from those about whom we critically write, this complaint is being furnished to the Senate Judiciary Committee, its senators, and their culpable staff, with an invitation for their responses. Likewise, to U.S. Attorney Lynch – and to her fellow U.S. Attorneys for the Southern and Northern Districts of New York: Preet Bharara and Richard Hartunian, whose responses we previously invited, without response from them. Such will not only accelerate the Select Committee’s ability to question them, but accords with President Washington’s Rule of Civility and Decent Behavior #89:

March 12, 2015

'speak not evil of the absent for it is unjust', highlighted by Senator Whitehouse in his mock condemnation of the testimony of the witnesses at the January 29, 2015 hearing – of which I was not one.

Finally, so that President Obama may have the opportunity to share with the Select Committee the results of his investigation, if any, of CJA's January 5, 2015 letter to him, either before or after he resubmitted U.S. Attorney Lynch's nomination as Attorney General to the Senate on January 7, 2015 – and to identify whether he has referred the high-level New York State governmental corruption that U.S. Attorneys Lynch, Bharara, and Hartunian have been collusively 'sitting on' to the Justice Department's Public Integrity Section of its Criminal Division, as the letter requested, this complaint is also being furnished to him. Needless to say, if President Obama has not made the requested referral, such reinforces the necessity that it be made by the Select Committee, consistent with the Code of Ethics for Government Service to 'Expose corruption wherever discovered.'" (March 11, 2015 complaint, at pp. 13-14, italics in the original).

Thank you.
