TO: U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York Damian Williams
U.S. Attorney for the Western District of New York Trini Ross
U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of New York Carla Freedman
U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York Breon Peace

FROM: Elena Sassower, Director
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)

RE: AGAIN & REPEATING THE TWO-FOLD QUESTION OF CJA'S OCTOBER 2021 LETTERS TO YOU – “How will you be confronting your conflicts of interest arising from CJA’s October 16, 2020 public corruption complaint against NY’s top state constitutional officers & its 62 D.A.s for fraud and larceny involving their salary raises & the state budget, established by open-and-shut, prima facie EVIDENCE – & what about your mandated reporting obligations?”

I have received no responses from you to the above two-fold question, identically posed in the titles of my October 13, 2021 and October 6, 2021 letters to you. This is set forth by my annexed “Civilian Crime Report” of today’s date to the Southern District’s Civilian Crime Reports Unit of its Criminal Division.

What are your answers? Please advise, without further delay – including whether your answers are the product of consultation with the “designated ethics advisor” of your offices and with ethics officers and entities within “main Justice”, all of whose names, direct phone numbers, and e-mail addresses I request.

For the convenience of all, this letter is posted on CJA’s website, accessible from the webpage entitled “Can Law & Ethical Duties Prevent NY’s 4 New U.S. Attorneys from Politicizing & Corrupting their Offices, as their predecessors did by acting on their conflicts of interest”. The link is here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-federal/us-attorneys-law-ethical-duties.htm>.

Thank you.
