Chief U.S. Circuit Court Judge SAM J. ERVIN, III
28 U.S.C. §372(c) Complaint
"The Mother of All Judicial Frauds"

This is the first, of a series, of 28 U.S.C. §372(c) complaints to be lodged against Chief U.S. Circuit Court Judge SAM J. ERVIN, III of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

All of these §372(c) complaints against Chief Judge Ervin are in His Honor's administrative, non-judicial, capacity.

The matters will also be made the subject of public disclosure.

Canon 3(B)3 of the Code of Judicial Conduct states (Administrative Responsibilities):

"A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a judge or lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware".

1a. The charge in this complaint is that the Chief Judge is aware of the uncontradicted assertions in the Chief Judge courts that penalty monies made payable "to the federal court" were diverted to private pockets, and the Chief Judge's lack of reaction is most remarkable, to say the least.

b. My demand that I have in hand a copy of a check made payable to the federal government for the amount diverted, with interest, by March 19, 1991, has received no response from anyone, including the Chief Judge.

2a. The Chief Judge is aware that such monies were diverted to the clients of Quinn, Ward & Kershaw, P.C., and that no attempt is being made to recover such monies by Assistant U.S. Attorney Barbara L. Herwig for the benefit of the federal government.

b. The quantum of judicial corruption in the Chief Judge's courts is staggering, none of which has prompted any reaction by the Chief Judge, is left for future complaints.

c. If the Chief Judge is silent about the diversion of monies payable "to the federal court" to private pockets, the Chief Judge's can be expected to be silent about all misconduct by bench and bar, no matter how egregious.

3a. In the face of the mandate of the Code of Judicial conduct such silence cannot be tolerated, and in addition to this filing, I intend to make same to subject of public disclosure.

b. With April 15, coming shortly, it should be interesting to obtain the vox populi when they learn that federal judges and federal officials, all on the federal payroll, are diverting monies from the federal treasury to the pockets of their cronies, or remaining silent on the subject, including by one who carries the name of "Ervin" and the title of "Chief Judge".
