Re: Hon. Robert Abrams

Sen. Attorney David S. Cook

Gentlemen:

You have been sitting on my complaint concerning "hard-core corruption" by high-echelon governmental officials including the above.

All that is necessary to confirm substantial aspects of my complaints, which has now received media coverage, is your signature to a Freedom of Information Request, a form for which is enclosed, and a postage stamp.

Enclosed please find my letter to the Governor of even date.

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER

Hon. Mario M. Cuomo Governor, State of New York Albany, New York 12224

Honorable Sir:

I draw Your Honor's attention to high-eschelon corruption in your administration which has received some recent media attention, even in other states (e.g., Daily Tribune of Hibbing, Minnesota, June 18, 1989). Only Your Honor's signature on a Freedom of Information request directed to your Attorney General and a postage stamp is necessary for substantial confirmation.

Puccini Clothes, Ltd. was involuntarily dissolved on June 4, 1980 and your Attorney General became the statutory fiduciary. In the more than nine (9) years since such involuntary dissolution, not a single accounting has been filed, although one must be filed "at least once a year" (22 NYCRR $202.52[e]), and despite the mandatory "duties" of your Attorney General in this respect (Bus. Corp. Law $1216[a]).

The "favorites" of your Attorney General have comletely and unlawfully denuded Puccini of all its assets, and then caused the trialess, manifestly unconstitutional, conviction and sentence of incarceration of Mr. Hyman Raffe. However, in return for "extortion" payments to these "favorites", which "now exceed $2.5 million dollars" (N.Y. Village Voice, June 6, 1989), Mr. Raffe never served any time in jail.

Even when the court order provided, in haec verba, that fines were payable "to the court", such monies went into the private pockets of your Attorney General's "favorites". Those monies, as Your Honor is surely aware, belong to the sovereign (Goodman v. State, 31 N.Y.2d 381, 340 N.Y.S.2d 393).

Because I will not pay extortion, I am repeatedly jailed, under such trialess scenarios, Bloom v. Illinois (391 U.S. 194), at the sovereign's cost and expense.

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
