Dear Mr. Frankel,

Enclose find a copy of a legal notice published by your newspaper, with a certification of publication, concerning the filing of an accounting by Lee Feltman, Esq., the court receiver for Puccini Clothes, Ltd., and a copy of his law firms notice of petition dated September 26, 1986, which states that there is "annexed" thereto his "final account".

Obviously, neither your nor any other newspaper could be responsible for the veracity of the contents of such legal notice, nor does this letter intend to imply otherwise.

Nevertheless, after proper investigation, I do believe that you should somewhere publish the fact that the notice was and is a fraud and hoax perpetrated by, inter alia, the receiver, his law firm, Senior Attorney David S. Cook of the State Attorney General's Office, and Referee Donald Diamond.

There was and is no accounting. It was "phantom".

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
