Re: Kreindler & Relkin, P.C.
350 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10118

Dear Sirs:

1a. This complaint sets forth only one, of the numerous, instances of unethical misconduct of KREINDLER & RELKIN, P.C., clearly mandating disbarment of some of its members, as a matter of law.

b. Indeed, it is only because of the corrupt influence that the above firm has over various judges, state and federal, including Presiding Justice FRANCIS T. MURPHY and District Court Judge EUGENE H. NICKERSON, that it, and some of its members, have not been criminal prosecuted.

c. To insure that, even belatedly, the criminal and ethical laws of our society are given obedience by those who have the "inside track" with the judicial system, copies of this complaint letter are being sent to, inter alia, the Attorney General of the United States, the Commission of Judicial Conduct, and members of the media, for simultaneous investigation.

2a. As background, unquestionably and undeniably the above firm engineered the massive larceny of the judicial trust assets of PUCCINI CLOTHES, LTD. ["Puccini"] and then inundated the judicial forum with perjurious affidavits denying same.

b. To conceal such massive larceny of judicial trust assets the above firm had to corrupt many others, but eventually its misdeeds surfaced.

c. To prevent redress United States District Judge EUGENE H. NICKERSON had to be corrupted and unquestionably His Honor was.

d. Indeed, MICHAEL J. GERSTEIN, Esq., of KREINLDER & RELKIN, P.C., as well as others, openly boasted of the fact that his firm and its co-conspirators "controlled" Judge NICKERSON, as well as other jurists.

3a. On June 7, 1985, Judge EUGENE H. NICKERSON, without a trial or opportunity for same held both myself and Mr. HYMAN RAFFE to be, inter alia, in non-summary criminal contempt, although His Honor knew he lacked jurisdictional power (Nye v. United States, 313 U.S. 33).

b. Since, even on an inquest basis, KREINLDER & RELKIN, P.C. could not establish a prima facie case for criminal contempt that was also dispensed with.

c. The herculian fines imposed upon myself and Mr. RAFFE were "payable to the [federal] court".

d. The fine monies were never paid to the United States Government, or any agency thereof, but instead, such monies that were paid by Mr. RAFFE, were paid to KREINDLER & RELKIN, P.C. and its clients.

e. The aforementioned (1) corruption of Judge EUGENE H. NICKERSON and having His Honor enter an Order of criminal contempt, which was jurisdictionally defective, and (2) then diverting the "fine monies" from the United States Treasury to its own pocket, is the basis of this complaint.

f. The criminal and unethical manner by which the above firm, and others, were able to divert the "fine monies" from the United States Government to its own pocket, will be the subject of another complaint, since the modus operandi was rather complex.

4. The evidence is also clear that the above firm and its co-conspirators corruptly "controlled" Presiding Justice FRANCIS T. MURPHY, but in view of recent events, I expect this complaint to be properly treated.
