Re: Grievance Committee v. G. Sassower

Honorable Sir:

1a. Today, 6 years, 7 months, and 3 days after Puccini Clothes, Ltd., was involuntarily dissolved, there still is no accounting filed, according to the docket books maintained in the County Clerk's Office (see enclosure).

b. It is also 1 year and 1 day after the effective date of the Bellacosa Uniform Rules, which provides that a receiver must file with the court "an accounting at least once each year" (202.52[e]).

2a. This disciplinary proceeding, as well as the other in terrorem judicial actions, are nothing less than transparent attempts to compel me to succumb to a code of silence with respect to the criminal conduct of the "criminals with law degrees" and their judicial serfs.

b. My response yesterday, today, and tomorrow is and will be, "nuts"!

3a. Perhaps Your Honor or His Honor's Court can explain why people who made a single error of judgment are incarcerated for lengthy periods of time, while these "barbaric thieves with law degrees" can steal, perjure, corrupt, extort, and blackmail, with impunity?

b. Perhaps Your Honor, His Court, or Robert H. Straus, Esq., can justify their failures to "blow the whistle" in view of the mandate of 3B3 of the Code of Judicial Conduct and Disciplinary Rule 1-103 of the Code of Professional Responsibility -- I cannot!

4a. I also enclose a copy of my letter to Hon. Warren E. Burger and my petition to "Impeach Administrative Judge Xavier C. Riccobono" (Corruption Incarnate).

b. As stated therein, I expect to stand firm, at least until the tricentennial year!

c. I believe Your Honor (and others) would be surprised if my intentions were otherwise.

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
