Re: Presiding Justice Francis T. Murphy

Honorable Sir:

The enclosed is an example of lawless, but permissible, conduct by those who openly boast that they "control" the judiciary, particularly Presiding Justice Francis T. Murphy and the disciplinary process.

The statutory mandate, permitting no exceptions, is that a court-appointed receiver must file with the County Clerk a verified statement by February 1 of each year, setting forth the "assets" of the involuntarily dissolved corporation (Bus. Corp. Law §1207(C)(3)).

The County Clerk's Docket Book, as of last week, a photostatic copy of which is enclosed, reveals that, one again, Lee Feltman, Esq., has failed to file such mandated annual statement for Puccini Clothes, Ltd.

Any correct verified filing of "assets" would have to reveal those assets made the subject of massive larceny engineered by Kreindler & Relkin, P.C., and also those "assets" plundered by Feltman, Karesh, Major & Farbman, Esqs.

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
