Honorable Sir:

Enclosed please find communication to be forwarded to the Grand Jury, as is my First Amendment right (Wood v. Georgia, 370 U.S. 375 [1962]) and right under Article 1 §6 of the New York State Constitution.

For undisclosed reasons, of which you may be aware, I believe you and your office should seriously consider recusal.

I would appreciate your expeditious attention to this matter, and written acknowledgment when the delivery has been made.

Copies of such grand jury communication is being made available to interested persons, including members of the media.

Most Respectfully,
