STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.: COUNTY OF WESTCHESTER)

GEORGE SASSOWER, Esq., first being duly sworn,
deposes, and says:

I have read the annexed affidavit of plaintiff, DORIS L. SASSOWER, Esq. duly sworn to on the 20th day of July, 1982.

I verify the correctness of the factual statements by Doris L. Sassower, Esq. as contained in her aforesaid affidavit insofar as they relate to me, her statements concerning Erick F. Larsen, Esq. at the Appellate Division, the testimony of Ernest L.
Signorelli, the testimony of Deputy Sheriff Anthony Grzymalski, and all incidents involving me.

With respect to the sua sponte published statement of Ernest L. Signorelli to which he gave neither my wife nor me the opportunity to respond, either prior to or after his publication thereof, I have analyzed same mainly from his own testimony and documentary evidence of his Court and have submitted to the Appellate Division, First Department my two hundred twenty nine (229) page affidavit of June 16, 1982 in support of my motion to vacate the entire Grievance Committee proceedings against me, ab initio, as a fraud upon the Court.

Parenthetically, as to every charge that the Grievance Committee did not voluntarily withdraw, the Referee recommended dismissal.

I have received the papers of the Grievance Committee and they do not dispute any matter contained in my affidavit. Neither has the Suffolk County Attorney, by Erick F. Larsen, Esq., seen fit to dispute any portion of such affidavit.

A portion of the Table of Contents to my said affidavit is as follows:

I challenge Ernest L. Signorelli to submit an affidavit to this Court, executed outside of Suffolk County, swearing to the truth of the contents of his statement of February 24, 1978, which he had published by the New York Law Journal on March 3, 1978.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully pray that plaintiffs' motion be granted in all respects.

GEORGE SASSOWER
