At a session of the Court, held at Court of Appeals Hall in the City of Albany
on the.....seventeenth.....day of.....January.....A. D. 19 84

Present, HON. LAWRENCE H. COOKE, Chief Judge, presiding.

2 Mo. No. 75 SSD 14
George Sassower,
Petitioner,
vs.
John P. Finnerty, Sheriff of Suffolk County,
Respondent.

(Action No. 1.)

The Peo. &c. ex rel. George Sassower, Appellant,

vs.

Sheriff of Suffolk County.
(Action No. 2.)

George Sassower,
Appellant,

vs.

Ernest L. Signorelli & ano., Respondents,

& ors.,

Defendants.

(Action No. 3.)

A notice of appeal dated September 6, 1983 having been taken by George Sassower and due deliberation having been there-upon had, it is ORDERED, that the appeal be and the same hereby is dismissed without costs, by the Court sua sponte, upon the ground that the portion of the Appellate Division order which remitted the proceeding in Action No. 2 to Special Term for further proceedings does not finally determine the proceeding within the meaning of the Constitution; appeal otherwise dismissed without costs, by the Court sua sponte, upon the ground that no appeal lies as of right from the Appellate Division order of unanimous affirmance.
