MISHLER, District Judge

The court awarded defendants attorneys' fees in its memorandum of decision and order dated November 29, 1984. The court is satisfied that the sum of $5,435 requested by defendants in the affidavit of Robert M. Calica dated January 25, 1985 is fair and reasonable and that the services were reasonably necessary to defend against the frivolous, vexatious, meritless and harassing claims.

The Clerk is directed to tax attorneys' fees in the amount of $5,435 as costs in the judgment entered in the above action, and it is

SO ORDERED.
