Dear Jonathan,

Enclose find four (4) demands, made in different courts, state and federal, demanding that Attorney General Robert Abrams, Senior Attorney David S. Cook, and others, to produce a copy of the "final accounting" of 1986, which was approved by Referee Donald Diamond, three (3) weeks ago.

When Tawana Brawley contrives the existence of certain specific crimes, the media has a roman holiday, but the Constitution is not offended.

When Abrams, the highest law officer of the state, and the statutory fiduciary for Puccini Clothes, Ltd., along with others, contrive the existence of a "final accounting" on a public judicial trust, the Constitution is offended.

Can the media properly remain silent!

To repeat, whether I be "saint" or "sinner", is not the issue. A publicly filed accounting must be filed whether I "be or not to be".

The issues are the public officials involved in this massive larceny and plundering of judicial trust assets.

The issues are Hobbs Act extortion practices where, for example, fines are levelled payable "to the [federal] court", but instead wind up in the pockets of "criminals with law degrees".

Have it published by the media, and you will be shocked by who is involved in these racketeering judicial-official, adventures.

Geo.
