I further contend that because the judiciary has unconstitutionally frozen my assets, the courts are estopped from denying in forma pauperis relief.

The action in the District Court and the appeal occurred in the midst of 1988 -- or more than two years ago-- when In forma pauperis relief was not required, and consequently not requested.

In forma pauperis applications made by your deponent have been uniformly granted to your deponent by the Third, Fourth, Eighth, Ninth and District of Columbia Circuits. Only the Second Circuit has sometimes denied such relief.

1Q. Are you presently employed?

A. I am not presently employed. Except for a few years after World War II, or more than forty years ago, I have not been employed by anyone else and therefore received no income by reason of same.

2Q. Have you received within the past twelve months any income from a business, profession or other form of self-employment, or in the form of rent payments, interest, dividends, or other source?

A. The date of my last income was from self-employment and was in or about October of 1988. The gross amount from such self-employment averaged about $500 per month during that month and the preceding year. Except for social security payments of $350.00 per month, which I am now receiving, I have received no other income.

substantial liabilities, all legitimately and reasonably incurred.

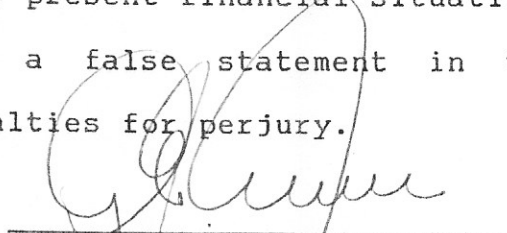

4Q. Do you own any real estate, stocks, bonds, notes, automobiles, or other valuable property (excluding ordinary household furnishings and clothing).

A. None, except for monies due me pursuant to a judgment and various claims, liquid and unliquidated, which I am unable to collect because I am denied access to the courts and for other unconstitutional reasons.

5Q. List the persons who are dependent upon you for support and state your relationship to those persons.

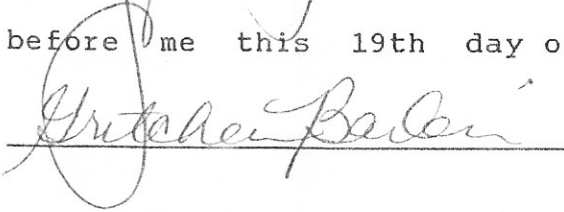

A. My youngest daughter, Lizbeth A. Sassower, but I am not supporting her because of my present financial situation.

I understand that a false statement in this affirmation will subject me to penalties for perjury.

GEORGE SASSOWER

SUBSCRIBED AND SWORN TO before me this 19th day of December, 1990.
