Affirmant further contend that because the judiciary has unconstitutionally frozen my assets, the courts are estopped from denying in forma pauperis relief (see Docket No. 90-6974).

In forma pauperis relief was granted in the courts below.

1Q. Are you presently employed?

A. I am not presently employed. Except for a few years after World War II, or more than forty years ago, I have not been employed by anyone else and therefore received no income by reason of same.

2Q. Have you received within the past twelve months any income from a business, profession or other form of self-employment, or in the form of rent payments, interest, dividends, or other source?

A. The date of my last income was from self-employment and was in or about October of 1988. The gross amount from such self-employment averaged about $500 per month during that month and the preceding year. Except for social security payments of approximately $360.00 per month, which I am now receiving, I have received no other income.

3Q. Do you own any cash or checking or savings accounts?

A. The amount of cash that I have on hand is about $10.00. I have no savings accounts. In my checking account, which is supposed to last me until my social security check on or about March 3, 1991, I have about $60. As against such minimal liquid assets I have substantial liabilities, all legitimately and reasonably incurred, but "frozen".

40. Do you own any real estate, stocks, bonds, notes, automobiles, or other valuable property (excluding ordinary household furnishings and clothing).

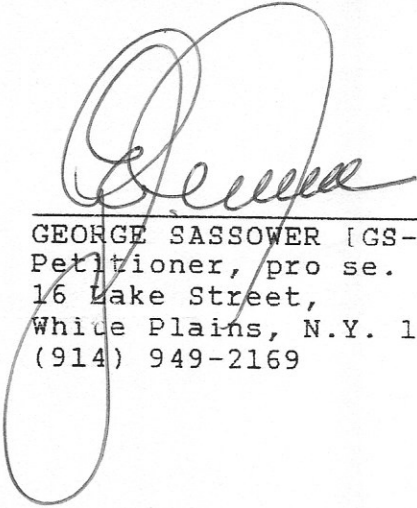

A. None, except for monies due me pursuant to a judgment and various claims, liquid and unliquidated, which I am unable to collect because I am denied access to the courts and for other unconstitutional reasons (see Docket No. 90-6974).

50. List the persons who are dependent upon you for support and state your relationship to those persons.

A. My youngest daughter, Lizbeth A. Sassower, but I am not supporting her because of my present financial situation.

The aforementioned is stated to be true under penalty of perjury.
