

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
OFFICE OF THE CLERK
WASHINGTON, DC 20543

WILLIAM K. SUTER,
CLERK OF THE COURT

February 26, 1991

AREA CODE 202
479-3011

George Sassower
16 Lake Street
White Plains, NY 10603

Re: Sassower v. Brieant, et al.

Dear Mr. Sassower:

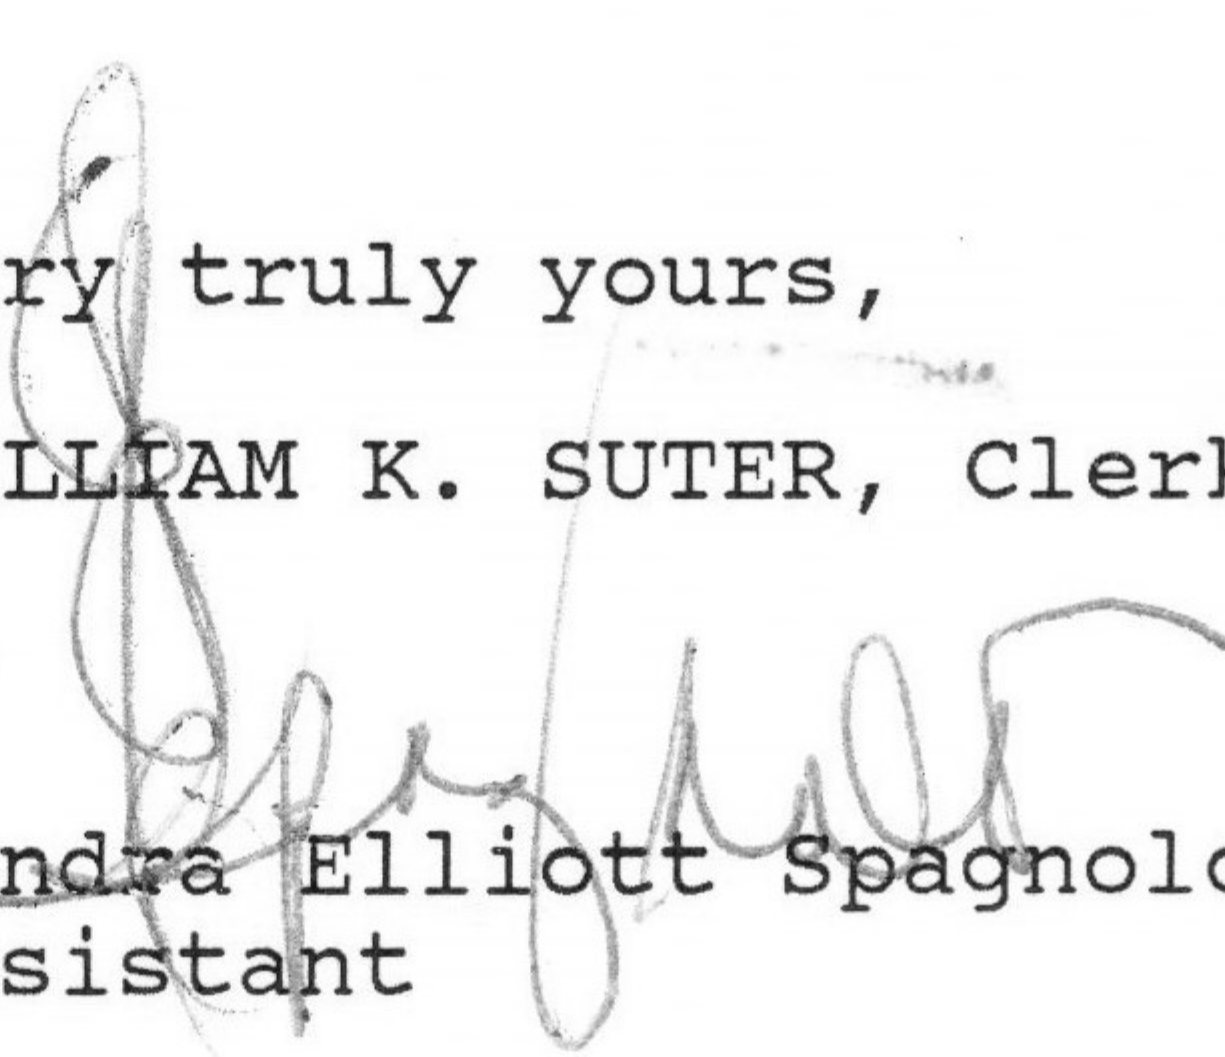

The above-entitled petition for a writ of certiorari was received February 25, 1991. The papers are returned for the following reason(s):

The petition was not timely received and the postmark on the envelope is not legible. The date of the lower court judgment or order denying a timely petition for rehearing was November 21, 1990. Therefore, the petition was due on or before February 19, 1991. See Rules 13.1, 29.2, and 30.1. The petition may not be docketed without a notarized statement or declaration of mailing as required by Rule 29.2.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM K. SUTER, Clerk

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1a. The statement in the Order of the Circuit Court of Appeals notwithstanding, jurisdiction in the Circuit Court was by virtue of a Notice of Appeal, not as an application for a writ for extraordinary relief, as can be easily confirmed by the notation in the upper right hand corner of said Order (A-5).

b. The petition to this Court is from said Order of the Circuit Court filed November 21, 1990 (A-5).

2a. Presented in this petition are some of the activities of Chief Judge CHARLES L. BRIEANT ["Brieant"] of the Southern District of New York, and as will be demonstrated herein, Chief Judge Brieant is probably the most dangerous federal judge in the United States, whose non-judicial activities
