

In The
SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
October Term, 1991
No.

-----x
In re:
GEORGE SASSOWER, Petitioner.
-----x

x-----x
PETITION FOR A WRIT OF MANDAMUS AND PROHIBITION TO THE CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT
x-----x

x-----x
RULE 20 AFFIRMATION
x-----x

I, GEORGE SASSOWER, in support of my Rule 20 application set forth the following:

1a. Unless the relief requested herein is granted, affirmant will be prejudiced in his subsequent presentation to this Court for he will be unable, by filed papers in the Circuit Court, to show his evidence and contentions which he desires be presented in the Court below.

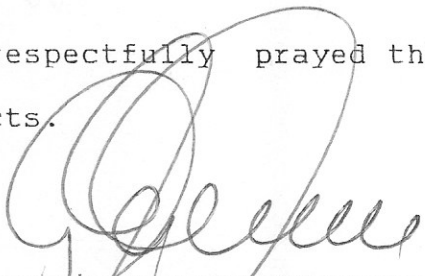

b. Affirmant's papers which disclose an unlawful arrangement between the judiciary and the Department of Justice is certainly not a constitutional reason for not accepting affirmant's submissions.

2a. There is no Order, that affirmant is aware, that prevents his "filings" in the Circuit Court, and certainly not those "filings" which he attempted to make.

b. Assuming, arguendo, such judicial blockade existed under an extant order, it would be a nullity as having been secured without any pretense of due process.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully prayed that this application be granted in all respects.
