Re: Grievance Comm. v. Sassower

Honorable Sir:

1. I have today confirmed the fact that Robert H. Straus, Esq., spoke to Ms. Jane Fritsch of Newsday, and from what I could gather he gave a totally misleading, if not false, resume.

2. Mr. Straus is aware of, and has copies of some of my documentary evidence of the massive larceny of judicial trust assets, the perjury, and corruption, which he did not reveal, and which I exposed.

3. Nor did Mr. Straus reveal his own transactional involvement in such criminal corruption.

4. Mr. Straus, the Feltman firm, and Kreindler & Relkin, P.C. are concealing both the "accounting" supposed to be settled in the "non-public courtroom" of Referee Donald Diamond, where I and everyone else opposed to his corrupt activities are excluded.

5a. I demand that Mr. Straus, the Feltman firm, not only serve me with a copy of the accounting, but also Ms. Jane Fritsch of Newsday, and also make full disclosure of the relationships between Rashba & Pokart, the accountants, with those who have been caught engaged in such larceny and perjury!

b. Although such accounting is being kept from me, larceny was sufficiently brazen and arrogant, that no one can conceal it, not even Rashba & Pokart!

Oct. 29. 1986

c. To investigate my accusation that Kreindler & Relkin, P.C., despite their vigorous sworn denials, was engaged in the larceny of judicial trust assets, with Arutt, Nachamie, Benjamin, & Lipkin, P.C., Lee Feltman, Esq., had the Court appoint Rashba & Pokart!

d. Kreindler & Relkin, P.C. was the client of the Rashba accounting firm.

The Arutt firm unlawfully took $10,000 from judicial trust assets, "laundered" $6,200 and gave it to Rashba (copy enclosed) in payment of an invoice to the Kreindler firm, keeping for itself the sum of $3,800 as a "laundering fee"!

e. Mr. Straus did not tell this and other facts involving judicial corruption, which I will now reveal!

f. I intend to give Ms. Fritsch the "hard evidence" not the fabricated nonsense of the "trio of judicial fixers" at 60 Center Street.

6. Perhaps, the judiciary will throw Ms. Fritsch in jail, without benefit of trial, or assess against her some herculian costs, so that the Court can graphically demonstrate how the judiciary tries to conceal judicial corruption and misconduct!

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
