Martin Brownstein, Esq.
Appellate Division, Second Department
45 Monroe Place,
Brooklyn, New York, 11201

Dear Mr. Brownstein,

1. I would appreciate it if you would, by return mail, send me a copy of the members of the Grievance Committee and their mailing addresses, for which a self-addressed stamped envelope is herewith enclosed.

2a. If anyone on the judicial payroll desires to "sleep with thieves", and advance their criminal misadventures, I have a right, if not an obligation, to advise them of such fact (U.S. Constitution, Amendment 1; California Motor v. Trucking Unlimited, 404 U.S. 508, 513; N.Y.S. Constitution, Article 1 §9).

b. Furthermore, when I make an ethical complaint, as I did eons ago, I expect the Grievance Committee would, at least, acknowledge its receipt.

3. Happy New Year -- 1987 I am really going public!

Very truly yours,

GEORGE SASSOWER
