Donald M. Sheraw, Esq.
Clerk, of the Court of Appeals
20 Eagle Street,
Albany, New York, 12207

Re: Grievance Comm. v. G. Sassower

Dear Mr. Sheraw,

1a. I would appreciate it if you would extend my time to file my jurisdictional statement in the above entitled matter until after April 17, 1987.

b. A copy of my timely Notice of Appeal mailed on April 1, 1987 is enclosed herewith.

2a. On Saturday, April 4, 1987, I received in the mail a motion to hold me in criminal contempt of court, to which I presently intend to assert my 5th Amendment rights.

b. Some of the factual matters on which I intended to assert in my jurisdictional statement, I am now compelled not to state, for fear they would be repeated out of context.

c. Such motion is returnable on April 17, 1987, and after the determination of such motion I intend to re-evaluate my position, and will advise you after such re-evaluation.

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
