The judges of this court must follow the decision and orders of each other. We do not sit as an appellate review of each other, okay; so, unless a decision of one of the judges of this court, full-time or part-time, is reversed by a superior court, in this case the Appellate Term of the State Supreme Court, or proceedings here stayed by the Supreme Court which has exclusive, original jurisdiction over all matters, we are bound to follow each other's decisions.

And in that way, I defer to Judge Hansbury and his decisions of October 11, 2007, and January 29, 2008. As best I know, as we speak, while there may be appeals of those decisions, there is no stay of the directions of those decisions, nor has the Appellate Term or the Supreme Court spoken with respect to the contents of those decisions.

In that way, our chief clerk sought to retrieve the file from 1989, and in so doing, ascertained that that is the only other open case in this matter.

Reference has been made today to other proceedings that might have been filed and occurred throughout the years, referring specifically to the last 17, 18 years in this city court between Mr. McFadden,

Elena and/or Doris L. Sassower, and/or a certain cooperative housing corporation which may be a real party in interest here, I don't know that, but may be a real party in interest here, sounds like they are for the moment since we are not addressing the facts, just the procedure, those are all closed files, okay.

The only open file from the past historically here is 651 of '89. Okay. Going to that file, Mr. Sclafani is absolutely correct that this is, that file is still open in that Judge James Reap reserved decision on the petitioner's then motion for summary judgment, pending the results of litigation in the Federal Court.

Okay. That having been said, there are now three full time judges and one half-time judge in White Plains City Court. That was not the case in 1989. Over the years the configuration of this court has changed. Nonetheless, I'm sitting the longest and I'm the successor in interest, being the senior judge, to Judge James Reap who was the senior judge in 1989 immediately prior to his retirement.

Our chief clerk then directed the file to me, for lack of a better way to assign older files, that file was directed to me. In directing that file to me, the decision of Judge Hansbury to then recuse himself, with this decision but I know you had another application.

MS. SASSOWER: Well, with all respect, your Honor, I made, I have ten affirmative defenses here and my first one relates to open proceedings.

I read the pertinent portion into the record today. I said there are three open proceedings. This is what I determined based upon reviewing the file last summer as well as my own copy of the file.

THE COURT: I understand. That statement disagrees with what I have just said. Do you have another application to the Court?

MS. SASSOWER: Well, with all respect, I understood you to say that you are, you are resting on Chief Clerk Lupi telling you that the other two proceedings of the co-op brought by the co-op, which I identified in my first affirmative defense to be open, she has represented to you, not on papers, not in a letter, not in my commun -- she has represented to you as being closed.

THE COURT: No, that's not what I said, Ms.

Sassower. What I said is that a review of the files for the last 18 years, I asked her to go back one year prior to 1990, just to make sure we have the full span, only

I'm telling 6 you that is not what Ms. Lupi told me. That is what the 7 records of the White Plains City Court indicate. 8 MS. SASSOWER: Can she put this in a sworn 9 statement. 10 THE COURT: No. I'm telling you that is what 11 the records shows. No one is putting anything into a 12 sworn statement. 13 MS. SASSOWER: I reviewed the records and 14 THE COURT: AS I said, you can disagree with 15 what I have said here today. I'm going to stay on the 16 bench for any additional applications. Okay. 17 MS. SASSOWER: Yes. 18 THE COURT: Okay go ahead. 19 MS. SASSOWER: You identified that you must 20 follow the decision and orders of each of the other 21 judges. Unless reversed, you are bound by those 22 decisions and, therefore, you are deferring, you said, 23 to the two decision orders of Judge Hansbury, October 24 11, 2007, and January 29, 2008. 25 I refer your attention respectfully to this	1	Proceedings 35
