TO: Assistant Attorney General John Moore –

Thank you for your below e-mail accepting service of petitioners' Notice of Appeal with Preliminary Appeal Statement. It arrived after I had left for the post office to mail the Preliminary Appeal Statement to the Court of Appeals – and above is the affirmation of service for it that I enclosed in the envelope indicating that I was awaiting your response.

I have alerted the Court of Appeals of your consent – for which I thank you.

In response to my below e-mail to Assistant Attorney General Engelhart, I received an auto-reply e-mail from him, stating:

“I am out of the office and will not have access to phone messages or email starting today through 10/29/24, returning 10/30/24. In case of time sensitive emergencies in my absence, please contact Stacey Hamilton (Stacey.Hamilton@ag.ny.gov), or Erin Mead (Erin.Mead@ag.ny.gov) for matters on 10/29/24.”

As you are AAG Engelhart's supervisor – and filed an appearance and opposition memorandum in CJA v. Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation, et al. \(NYSCEF #60\) -- kindly advise whether you will accept the above-attached Notice of Appeal with Preliminary Appeal Statement (NYSCEF #95) as service, or require that I mail a hard copy.

Thank you.

TO: Assistant Attorney General Noah Engelhart --

On Monday, October 21st, I uploaded to the Supreme Court docket (Albany Co. Index #902654-24) petitioners' Notice of Appeal to the Court of Appeals with Preliminary Appeal Statement – NYSCEF #95.

I must send an original and a copy to the Court of Appeals with an affidavit of service. The Court of Appeals has advised that I can serve you, by e-mail, if you consent to same.

Please let me know whether you will deem the above-attached Notice of Appeal with Preliminary Appeal Statement (NYSCEF #95) as service, or require that I mail you a hard copy, which I will expeditiously do.

Thank you.
