

On Wednesday, November 27, 2019, at about 2:50 pm, I attempted to send the below message to the Fund for Modern Court, via its webpage: <https://moderncourts.org/contact/>:

“Following up my yesterday's voice mail message, at about 11:10 am, to which I received no call back, and my voice mail message today, which I left at about 2:20 pm -- half an hour ago, requesting the Fund for Modern Courts' e-mail address -- none being posted on your website – here's the link to the webpage of CJA's website posting my November 25th letter to Chief Administrative Lawrence Marks -- indicating, as cc's, all the judicial pay raise witnesses who testified before the Commission on Legislative, Judicial & Executive Compensation at its November 4th and November 14th hearings: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/force-of-law-commissions/part-e-chapter60-laws-2015/11-25-19-ltr-to-marks-etc.htm>. Modern Courts' Executive Director Hawkins is such a witness, having testified on November 4th -- and his response is required.”

Upon hitting the send button, I got the following message: “Failed to send your message. Please try later or contact the administrator by another method.” I thereupon called the Fund again (212-541-6741) and advised that my November 25, 2019 letter to Chief Administrative Judge Marks could be easily accessed from CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, via the top panel “Latest News”.

I received no subsequent return call from Mr. Hawkins or the Fund for Modern Courts.
