Dear Ms. Sassower,

This letter is in response to the complaint that you made to the District Attorney's Office concerning the November 14, 2024 report by the New York State Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation.

We have carefully reviewed all the information you have provided. After this review, we have concluded that we will not be proceeding with an investigation into the matter at this time.

Thank you for informing us of this matter, and we hope it can be resolved through other channels.

Sincerely,
