TO: Commission on Ethics and Lobbying in Government

On January 29, 2024 I filed a conflict-of-interest/corruption complaint against the seven members of the Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation for their knowing and deliberate violations of Public Officers Law §74 by their “false instrument” December 4, 2023 “Final Report on Judicial Compensation”, so-demonstrated by CJA’s January 18, 2024 Opposition Report, attached to the complaint.

On May 30, 2024, June 5, 2024, and October 7, 2024, I inquired as to the number you had assigned to the complaint and its status – and only on November 7, 2024 did you finally respond, identifying its number as 24-141 and its status as “open”.

The following week, the seven members of the Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation rendered a second “false instrument” report – a November 14, 2024 “Final Report on Legislative and Executive Compensation”, whose knowing and deliberate violations of Public Officers Law §74 CJA has demonstrated by a February 3, 2025 Opposition Report.

Please deem the February 3, 2025 Opposition Report as a supplement to CJA’s January 29, 2024 complaint, as well as a new complaint. For purposes of this new complaint, a signed complaint form with the February 3, 2025 Opposition Report is attached. I affirm them as true under penalties of perjury, pursuant to CPLR §2106.

Thank you.
