Subject: Complaint vs AGC-4 Chief Counsel Gregory Huether for corrupting his office
Attachments: 2-23-22-reconsideration-complaint-to-AGC4-chairs.pdf; 2-23-22-complaint-form-vs-huether.pdf

TO: Unified Court System Inspector General Sherrill Spatz, ESQ.

Above-attached is my complaint form of today's date for a complaint against AGC-4 Chief Counsel Gregory Huether – resting on the facts and EVIDENCE set forth by my reconsideration/complaint letter to the three chairs of AGC-4's three attorney grievance committees, also above-attached, sent to them and you, moments ago, by the below e-mail.

Once again, I look forward to being “contacted by a member of [your] staff responsible for investigating [my] complaint”, as indicated at the top of your complaint form – and soon.

Thank you.

Subject: RECONSIDERATION of "Complaints... dated Nov 9, 2021 and April 3, 2021" that AGC-4 Chief Counsel Huether purports to close pursuant to 22 NYCRR 1240.7(d)(1) -- & COMPLAINT vs him for conflicts of interest and fraud

TO: Fourth Judicial Department Attorney Grievance Committee Chairs (AGC-4)

7th Judicial District AGC Chair Steven V. Modica, Esq.

5th Judicial District AGC Chair Anthony S. Bottar, Esq.

8th Judicial District AGC Chair Lauren E. Breen, Esq.

The above-attached letter is being sent directly to you because it not only requests reconsideration pursuant to 22 NYCRR §1240.7(e)(3) of Chief Counsel Huether's disposition of what he describes as "Complaints...dated Nov 9, 2021 and April 3, 2021", which he has "closed pursuant to 22 NYCRR 1240.7(d)(1)", but because it is a complaint against him for conflicts of interest and fraud.

For the reasons therein specified, I respectfully request that you forward this e-mail to "the FULL membership of the three AGC-4 committees on an EMERGENCY, TIME-IS-OF-THE-ESSENCE BASIS" – and that you promptly confirm that you have done so.

Thank you.
