Subject: BIG STORY! Mysterious disappearance of Assemblywoman Rodneyse Bichotte -- Commission's shut down of tomorrow's hearing --

Dear Rick,

Following up our brief conversation about your just posted blog:

<http://blog.timesunion.com/capitol/archives/268466/sans-testimony-legislative-pay-hearing-is-cancelled/>, Assemblywoman Rodneyse Bichotte was scheduled to testify. Indeed, it was her September 20th letter to the Commission, stating "This is a formal request to express my desire to testify before the panel", posted on its website, that prompted the Commission to schedule a further hearing to accommodate her testimony – and that of other legislators – so that they could make their case for legislative pay raises.

Here's Assemblywoman Bichotte's September 20th letter-request: http://nyscommissiononcompensation.org/pdf/bichotte_letter%20to%20commission_20160919_final.pdf.

The transcript of what took place at the Commission's September 22nd meeting, at which she was present – and was introduced – is here: <http://nyscommissiononcompensation.org/pdf/092216-commission%20transcript.pdf> -- see, inter alia, pp. 2, 8-9, 38-39. Then, too, the video: <http://nyscommissiononcompensation.org/meetings-legislative.shtml>

There's a BIG story here. I believe that the Commission tried to keep the September 22nd meeting away from press attention – and for that reason did not live-stream it.

Because of this I could not watch it live on September 22nd, but having read Assemblywoman Bichotte's posted letter, I used the time to call her office – and spoke at length to her chief of staff, Ms. Taylor, taking her on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, and guiding her through the paper trail of proof of how a corrupt Legislature created a corrupt Commission – and involving the Assembly Committee on Governmental Operations, of which she is a member. See, for example – CJA's Jan. 15, 2016 letter to Flanagan and Heastie for legislative oversight of the Commission, with cc's for the chair and ranking member of the Committee on Governmental Operations, expressly requesting distribution to its membership, which would include her: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/judicial-compensation/2015/jan-15-2016-ltr-to-leg-leaders.htm>.

This paper trail – including CJA's September 2nd citizen-taxpayer action with its three causes of action to strike down the statute that established the Commission, as to which we are entitled to summary judgment, as a matter of law -- is accessible from our homepage, www.judgewatch.org, via the center link "NO PAY RAISES FOR NY's CORRUPT PUBLIC OFFICERS: The Money Belongs to their Victims!". Here it is directly: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/judicial-compensation/2015-no-pay-raises-menu.htm>.

I called to speak with Ms. Taylor this morning at about 11:30 am, alerting the office that I would be testifying.... I then called two other assembly members, about whom I was going to be offering testimony at tomorrow's hearing... Two hours later, I got the below e-mail of the cancellation. Then, too, there is the five FOIL notices I sent to the Commission – the latest, this morning: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/judicial-compensation/2015/2015-comm-leg-jud-exec-compensation.htm> (scroll to bottom).

I am available to answer questions and to be interviewed. I will assist you to the max. For starters, here's Assemblyman Bichotte's webpage: <http://nyassembly.gov/mem/Rodneyse-Bichotte> . Her e-mail is: bichotter@nyassembly.gov .

Thank you.

We apologize for the late notice, but the Commission's hearing tomorrow is CANCELLED. Please submit any testimony in written form.

The Commission's previously scheduled public hearing for Tuesday, October 18, 2016, has been canceled. This hearing was in addition to the Commission's original calendar and was scheduled for the purpose of providing an opportunity for additional legislators or others who would be directly impacted by a salary increase to present testimony. However, no such persons have asked to do so. The Commission welcomes written submissions.

The Commission has reached no determination or consensus regarding any salary increase recommendations. Please review the web site for further information.
