Subject: Elections 2017: building watchdog journalism on Long Island & beyond-- do you know journalist/now professor Karl Grossman?

Dear Greg,

Here's the June 23, 2017 press release about the award Karl Grossman got from the Legislative Board: http://suffolkcountyny.gov/Portals/33/press/2017/do1pr_062317_grossman.pdf -- noting that "He is a professor of journalism at SUNY Old Westbury where he teaches a class in investigative journalism."

What about contacting Mr. Grossman – and proposing election-related investigations for his journalism class?

My September 5th letter is a game-changer on so many fronts – and hopefully your column about it in the Riverhead Local is not being held up by its lawyer/editor-publisher Denise Civiletti, who – notwithstanding her receipt of my September 5th letter -- has NOT followed-up on her own August 30th story about the pay freeze legislation: <https://riverheadlocal.com/2017/08/30/krupski-calls-pay-freeze-elected-county-officials-citing-suffolks-finances/>, just as she did not return my voice mail messages for her, requesting your contact info.

Meantime, as a lawyer yourself, please examine the record of CJA's second citizen-taxpayer action so that you can follow-up with the incumbent public officers and would-be public officers, beginning with the lawyers – ALL of whom are obligated by ethical rules to be "blowing the whistle" on the corruption it chronicles. From now through election day on November 7th, your columns can make a HUGE difference in empowering voters to demand answers and to vote out all those who cover-up and collude in the corruption and THEFT of taxpayer dollars involving D.A. and judicial salaries – as, for instance, in the Suffolk County legislative races, in addition to the races for Suffolk County D.A. and Suffolk County sheriff.

Thank you.
