Subject: ATT: Holly Kirkpatrick -- Evidentiary Rebuttal: "Who Investigates complaints regarding state government. New York State Inspector General Lucy Lang" (April 15, 2024, WBFO)

Attachments: 2-7-24-complaint-vs-megna-to-inspector-general.pdf

TO: WBFO-National Public Radio Reporter Holly Kirkpatrick

I would like to speak with you about your interview "Who investigates complaints regarding state government? New York Inspector General Lucy Lang" (April 15, 2024) – as the situation is NOT how IG Lang self-servingly described it to you and the public, when she stated, regarding the over 6,000 complaints her office receives each year:

“Every one of those complaints gets thoroughly investigated. And where there is indicia of fraud or abuse, we open a complete investigation. And that can include investigating on the ground with witnesses and conducting interviews, it can include conducting surveillance, it can include doing more of a paper based analysis - so we really tailor our investigations to the nature of the allegations.”

Indeed, IG Lang’s wilful nonfeasance with respect to fully-documented complaints of state governmental corruption, at its highest levels, involving Governor Hochul who appointed her, and pay raises, including her own, and New York’s larcenous and “OFF THE CONSTITUTIONAL RAILS” state budget, resulted in a lawsuit, suing her for corruption – CJA v. JCOPE...NYS Inspector General, et al. See, inter alia, ¶¶8, 59-77 of the [June 6, 2022 verified petition and, among its exhibits, my November 2, 2021 letter to IG Lang, constituting six interrelated corruption complaints, including against the Office of Inspector General and JCOPE, over which she had jurisdiction.

On October 13, 2023, I testified about the case before the (3rd) Commission on Legislative Judicial and Executive Compensation (VIDEO, at 2hrs/31 mins), identifying that it was on appeal at the Appellate Division, Third Department, on a record establishing that the case was “thrown” by fraudulent judicial decisions. This Monday, April 22nd, the appeal will be orally argued – and you can watch it, as it will be live-streamed.

Meantime, above-attached, sent by the below February 7, 2024 e-mail, is my most recent fully-documented complaint to IG Lang. It continues the saga of high-level state government corruption involving pay raises – and is against (3rd) Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation Member Robert Megna, who is president of the Rockefeller Institute of Government. Now, more than two months later, what kind of “complete investigation” do you believe IG Lang has done of the complaint – resting, as it does, on CJA’s January 18, 2024 Opposition Report, establishing the Commission’s December 4, 2023 Report to be a “false instrument”.

I look forward to speaking with you – and soon – about your reporting of this evidentiary rebuttal to IG Lang’s demonstrably false claims to you and the public.

Thank you.
