The duty of the Wayne County D.A. is to enforce New York's penal laws and obey conflict of interest protocols. That is the subject of the Center for Judicial Accountability's above-attached July 18, 2024 grand jury/public corruption complaint to Wayne County Acting D.A. Christine Callanan, sent to her by the below e-mail. It involves her $221,100 D.A. salary, statutorily-linked to the Wayne county court judge salary, $101,300 of which is the product of three "false instrument", penal law-violating commission reports that Wayne County's two state legislators, Senator Pamela Helming and Assemblyman Brian Manktelow, each running for re-election, are knowledgeable of and complicit in.

Acting D.A. Callanan is herself running for election unopposed, having procured the Republican and Conservative lines for which she faced no primary challenge for either line. How is that possible? And how is it possible that Senator Helming and Assemblyman Manktelow faced no primary challenges for the Republican and Conservative lines on which they are running?

I have received no response from Acting D.A. Callanan to the July 18, 2024 grand jury/public corruption complaint, which requested her response by August 1, 2024 to two simple questions:

- (1) whether she would be repudiating the $101,300 salary difference and advising Wayne County to secure a judicial declaration voiding the three "false instrument", penal law-violating commission reports?;
- (2) whether she would be recusing herself from the July 18, 2024 grand jury/public corruption complaint and securing an independent prosecutor?

As Acting D.A. Callanan will surely be more responsive to inquiries from WRVO, I am cc'ing her.

Please call me so that we can discuss these two questions and your election reporting and editorializing about Wayne County's D.A. race, state legislative races, and judicial races – all involving "false instrument", penal law-violating salaries for these offices.

Thank you.
