The duty of the Chautauqua County D.A. is to enforce New York's penal laws and obey conflict of interest protocols. That is the subject of the Center for Judicial Accountability's above-attached July 18, 2024 grand jury/public corruption complaint to Chautauqua County D.A. Jason Schmidt, sent to him by the below e-mail. It involves his $221,100 D.A. salary, statutorily-linked to the Chautauqua county court judge salary, $101,300 of which is the product of three "false instrument", penal law-violating commission reports that Chautauqua County's two state legislators, Senator George Borrello, running for re-election, and Assemblyman Andy Goodell, Esq., retiring, are knowledgeable of and complicit in.

D.A. Schmidt is himself running for re-election unopposed, on Republican and Conservative lines for which he faced no primary challenge on either line. How is that possible when the D.A. salary is $221,100 – on top of which are thousands of dollars in non-salary compensation benefits. Likewise, with state legislative salaries at $142,000 and also topped by thousands of dollars in non-salary compensation benefits, how is it possible that Senator Borello is running for re-election unopposed, on Republican and Conservative lines for which he faced no primary for either line – and that there were no primaries for Assemblyman Goodell’s seat: not for the Republican and Conservative lines, whose single candidate is Andrew Molitor, and not for the Democratic and Working Families lines, whose single candidate is Michael Bobseine, also running on a “Restore Freedom Party” line. According to 2022 statistics, Chautauqua County has a population of 127,440 and a median household income of \$54,625.

I received no response from D.A. Schmidt to the July 18, 2024 grand jury/public corruption complaint, which requested his response by August 1, 2024 to two simple questions:

- (1) whether he would be repudiating the $101,300 salary difference and advising Chautauqua County to secure a judicial declaration voiding the three “false instrument”, penal law-violating commission reports?;
- (2) whether he would be recusing himself from the July 18, 2024 grand jury/public corruption complaint and securing an independent prosecutor?

As D.A. Seaman will surely be more responsive to inquiries from The Buffalo News, I am cc’ing him.

I look forward to discussing with you the above two questions and your election reporting and editorializing about Chautauqua County’s D.A. race, state legislative races, and judicial races – all involving “false instrument”, penal law-violating salaries for these offices.

Thank you.
