RE: "Times Watch"

Dear Mr. Kramer:

We were most surprised and disappointed to have had no response from you to my November 27, 1994 letter relating the New York Times' deliberate suppression of the story featured in our 16,770 paid-ad "Where Do You Go When Judges Break the Law?". A copy of that ad, published on the Op-Ed page of the Times' October 26, 1994 issue, is enclosed for your convenience.

If, as it would appear, you are not intending to follow up how the Times discredited itself and disserved the public in this matter, your return of my November 27, 1994 letter, with its extensive supporting documentation, would be greatly appreciated.

In the hope that you may reconsider, we enclose herewith a copy of my self-explanatory January 17, 1995 letter to Gene Roberts, the Times' Managing Editor. Should you desire to see a copy of the compendious exhibits annexed thereto, we will be happy to supply them.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator

P.S. It's not too early to start thinking about appropriate stories for "Law Day"-- which is May 1st. We have no doubt that this would be perfect for the occasion.
