RE: CJA's public interest ad "Restraining 'Liars in the Courtroom' and on the Public Payroll"

Dear Mr. Robbins:

On Thursday, the only paragraphs to which you objected were the four paragraphs on the left column of the ad, after the first two. As to these, you asked me to disclose the "undisclosed facts", with record references. You did not make such request as to the balance of the ad.

Since the only "sticking" point that now remains is that you do not want to include -- in the penultimate paragraph any reference to the "Law Department's fraud, covered up by a federal district judge" -- I have provided you with quotes from the record: pages 41-43 of the Appellant's Brief. The Brief and Record on Appeal were brought to Attorney General Vacco attention in our faxed/certified-mail, return, receipt January 14, 1997 letter to him. That letter is in the Law Journal's possession: annexed to our July 24, 1997 letter to Floyd Abrams and also annexed as an exhibit to our August 12, 1997 letter to Kris Fischer. Mr. Finkelstein should have copies of both those letters.

Additionally, I have telephoned Kris Fischer and requested that she supply you with the appellate papers in our 1983 federal action. Our reference in the ad to over 150 allegations being "knowingly false and in bad-faith", appears in the Record at 275-302.

We trust these record references will suffice to satisfy you. Please call me ASAP so that we can finish this. Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
and an informed public,
