Commission on Judicial Conduct
Robert Tembeckjian

Dear Mr. Tembeckjian:

I heard your testimony on June 8, 2009. Your commission obviously erred in dismissing my complaint. I'm resubmitting it and including other misconduct by Judge Kevin K. Ryan which occurred after the original complaint was filed. Judge Ryan knowingly allowed perjury and fraud by a former DA, Ara Asadourian, who told a jury I was the worst Domestic Violence Abuser in the North Country since 1972 and the Police intervened to stop me. Judge Ryan refused to allow Police records to show no DV intervention ever occurred. Judge Ryan told the jury to disregard that testimony.

I have been defibrillated five times and Judge Ryan moved up a trial date to when he knew I was in cardiac intensive care. Judge Ryan dismissed an action for damages from an assault and battery and attempt to cause my death, allowing Ara Asadourian to claim in one action that the assault, battery, an attempt was only an accident and then claim it was deliberate.

Judge Ryan's reversed the order of closing arguments. This is only a very shortened list of my complaints against Judge Ryan.

Is this CJC acceptable judicial conduct? The people would hope not. There is no need to review my complaint against Judge Dawson, since the voters have discarded him.

Sincerely yours,

Terence Finnan

Included: Complaint to Judge Pfau concerning Judge Ryan's misconduct when I was hospitalized, which should be added to my original complaint.

P.S. Would CJC consider Judge Pfau's inaction to be acceptable?
