Judicial Salaries to Be Topic Of Public Hearing in NYC

A state commission responsible for recommending salary increases for judges and lawmakers will hold a public hearing at the New York City Bar Association on Monday.

The hearing of the New York State Commission on Legislative, Judicial, & Executive Compensation starts at 11 a.m. at 42 W. 44th St. The commission will discuss only judicial salaries.

The proceedings will be streamed live online at www.nyscommissiononcompensation.org. Members of the public can also listen in to the hearing by telephone.

Information about remote telephone access will be posted on the website before the hearing.

The commission, which first convened in 2011, has a Dec. 31 deadline to submit a report addressing judicial compensation.

Comments can be mailed to the commission at 64 Beaver St., Box 454, New York, NY 10004 or emailed to nyscompensation@gmail.com.

Written submissions should be received no later than Dec. 2. According to the hearing notice, individuals testifying at the hearing are “strongly encouraged” to submit their written testimony by Nov. 25.
