Subject: Verifying the Dispositive Nature of the February 6, 2013 Opposition Testimony to the Judiciary Budget & Judicial Pay Raises

TO: Rebecca Dagati, Director of the Assembly Ways & Means Committee Republican Minority
John Mertz, Counsel to Assembly Ways & Means Committee Republican Minority

Following up the phone message I left with Ashley earlier today (518-455-5161; 455-4131), requesting to speak with you, here are the two most important questions I wish to discuss:

- (1) Who, on behalf of the Assembly Ways & Means Committee Republican Minority is reviewing the documents I handed up and to which I referred at the February 6, 2013 budget hearing on “Public Protection” in support of my testimony in opposition to the Judiciary’s budget and, in particular to the judicial salary increases?;
- (2) When will the Assembly Ways & Means Committee Republican Minority publicly release its findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to its review of those documents and my testimony?

The video of the February 6, 2013 hearing on “Public Protection” is posted on the Center for Judicial Accountability’s website, www.judgewidth.org, accessible via the top panel “Latest News”, whose first hyperlink is to our webpage “Securing Legislative Oversight & Override of the 2nd & 3rd Phases of the Judicial Pay Raises...”. The webpage also contains all the documents I handed up and referred-to during my testimony, as well as other substantiating materials. For your convenience, here’s the direct link: <http://www.judgewidth.org/web-pages/judicial-compensation/legislative-oversight-judicial-raises.htm> .

Please additionally advise as to how many counsel work for the Assembly Ways & Means Committee Republican Minority, as well as the dollar appropriations it is seeking for fiscal year 2013-2014 to fund its operations. Certainly, too, if there is a dollar figure for the cost of its compiling the “Green Book” for fiscal year 2013-2014, I would also appreciate that. In that connection, please advise why the “Green Book” is not available in electronic form, posted on a website – and identify to whom the “Green Book” is distributed.

Thank you.
