Dear Ms. Sassower:

I have received your November 7, 2012 emails and accompanying documentation regarding allegations of misconduct by Chief Deputy County Clerk James Rossetti.

After reviewing the information provided in your correspondence and speaking with you yesterday on the phone, I have concluded that there is an insufficient investigative predicate to support opening up a criminal investigation. Therefore we have decided to not to initiate a criminal investigation.

We will keep your complaint on file should more information about this issue surface.

Sincerely,
