Hi Ms. Sassower,

Following up on your email, I've had a chance to speak to our executive director, Michael Jacobson, and he'd like me to point out that the CUNY Institute for State and Local Governance does not work on the New York State budget, nor do we examine the budget practices of New York State as part of the Volcker Alliance work, as Bill Glasgall pointed out.

If you're looking for CUNY professors with expertise in the New York State Constitution, there may be some professors at the CUNY School of Law with that expertise.

Regarding the Lindsay Fellows, they are all elected officials, so you are free to reach out to any of them. They each have contact information on their websites.

Best,
Abbi

Following up on the voice message I left for you a short time ago (718-938-3310), in response to your yesterday's e-mail at 8:14 pm, stating:

"I understand you've been trying to get in touch with our executive director, Michael Jacobson. Could you let me know what information you're looking for? Perhaps I can help streamline things."
