Dear Peter,

Following up my brief conversation with Sally a short time ago, here's my today's letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee, recapitulating much of what I told you several weeks ago when I called you about the National Legal and Policy Center's November 17th posting "Attorney General Nominee Loretta Lynch is Soft on Political Corruption". I look forward to assisting you, Tom Anderson, and others at NLPC in developing further coverage of Ms. Lynch's record.

Attached is the Center for Judicial Accountability's above-entitled letter of today's date to the Senate Judiciary Committee. It is also posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the prominent homepage link "CJA's Citizen Opposition to U.S. Attorney Loretta Lynch's Confirmation as U.S. Attorney General".

I am available to be interviewed by Committee counsel and investigators.

Thank you.
