August 3, 2004

Dear Congresswoman Lowey:

I am a constituent, as well as a registered Democrat, who worked actively for your election. As you know, by my work as a pioneer feminist in the 60's and 70's, I broke ground for women such as yourself to seek public office.

While I appreciate receiving your annual Christmas greetings featuring photos of your family, I do not appreciate your disinterest in the major tragedy that has affected me and my family. I did tell you personally about it, as you were leaving last year's Cancer Survivors event at White Plains Hospital, which I attended as a cancer survivor.

I made you aware then of the false arrest and incarceration of my daughter, Elena Ruth Sassower, also a constituent and voting supporter of yours, by the DC Capitol Police at the end of the May 22, 2004 Senate Judiciary Committee judicial confirmation Public Hearing on a bogus charge of "Disruption of Congress." Please visit our website at www.judgewatch.org to put a face on this human and legal tragedy – my daughter's.

Incredibly, I never heard anything from you since then concerning the flagrant violation of her First Amendment rights and miscarriage of justice I reported to you last year. I recently discussed the matter with Doris Blank of your NY office and the further fact that my daughter was sentenced to SIX MONTHS in a DC jail and unjustly incarcerated since June 28, 2004 by a biased and vindictive DC Superior Court Judge, an appointee who was nominated by President Bush on the very day of her arrest. He was then 46 years of age, with no judicial or criminal law experience.

Doris Blank referred me to Claire Coleman, telling me she was the right one to speak to in your DC office.

Despite the fact I was promised a response to my multiple calls and emails placed to them, I am sorry to say that there has been complete silence and inaction. Needless to say, I would still appreciate the courtesy of a telephone call to my office, here at White Plains based Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., at (914)-997-8105.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Doris L. Sassower
