August 4, 2004

Congresswoman Nita Lowey
Att: Patricia Keegan, Director, White Plains District Office

Dear Patricia:

I do wish to thank you for your same day response, yesterday, to my August 3, 2004 letter, which gives me hope that there will be ACTION by Nita Lowey to free Elena now. Per our telephone conversation yesterday afternoon, I am transmitting herewith a superseding August 3, 2004 letter, which corrects the clerical error as to the year of Elena's arrest, which should, of course, have been 2003, not 2004, as I advised.

I might mention that I was recently interviewed on-air at one of our prominent Westchester County radio stations on Friday, July 9, 2004. I was specifically asked by a call-in woman, who after expressing her shock and outrage as to what I reported had happened to Elena, asked "What has Nita Lowey done to help your daughter." My response was "Sad to say, nothing as of yet." When she said I can't believe it... that really surprises me", I told her "It surprised me too." She further stated that "if Nita Lowey continues to do nothing to help free Elena, Nita Lowey would not have her or her family's votes this time around."

A word to the wise is sufficient.

Doris
