ATT: Paul Curran, Chairman

RE: (1) Request for the transcript of the July 6, 2000
public hearing;
(2) CJA's unresponded-to July 10, 2000 letter

Dear Chairman Curran:

This is to formally request a copy of the transcript of the July 6, 2000 public hearing of the Mayor's Advisory Committee on the Judiciary, recorded by Annette Forbes of the Fink & Carney Reporting Service.

By this letter, CJA also confirms that as of this date, a full three weeks after CJA faxed its July 10th letter to you requesting information as to the Committee's post-hearing procedures, we have received no response from you.

Likewise, we have received no response from any of the other indicated recipients of the July 10th letter, to whom CJA faxed copies on that date. This includes Paul Siegfried, whose abusive and unprofessional conduct the letter details, and Patricia Hynes, whose disqualifying conflicts of interests are also particularized therein.

Hard copies of the July 10th were delivered the following day: for you at your law office, for Ms. Hynes at her law office, and for Mr. Siegfried at the Committee's office, in keeping with his wishes.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
