Dear Elena,

Thank you for your communication and your interest in the work of the Commission. I know you have met with the Commission's counsel, Professor Michael Sweeney. The information and perspective which you gave him will certainly be considered in the continuing work of the Commission. I certainly share your view of the importance of public confidence in the Judiciary, a subject to which I have devoted considerable volunteer time over the past 30 years. Like yourself and your mother, whom I remember with great regard, we can never let up in our efforts to do all we can to enhance confidence. We may have different perspectives on how to accomplish that goal, but no disagreement exists on its importance.

My best wishes to you and your colleagues.

Sincerely,

John D. Feerick, Chairman
Commission to Promote Public
Confidence in the Judiciary
