Redline Comparison of Revised Rules against Original Rules:

Blue underlines are additions to the original text.

~~Red strike throughs~~ are deletions from the original text.

Green underlines and ~~green strike throughs~~ are text that has been relocated.

7100.0

Preamble.

Under the Constitution and laws of the State of New York, the Commission on Judicial Nomination is entrusted with responsibility for evaluating, and then recommending to the Governor, candidates to fill vacancies on the State's highest court, the Court of Appeals of the State of New York. These rules implement the overarching constitutional and statutory mandate that the commission vigorously seek out, carefully evaluate and then nominate to the Governor well qualified candidates from the extraordinary, diverse community of lawyers admitted to practice in New York State for at least 10 years. The commission seeks to discharge this duty with diligence and transparency in a manner consistent with the confidentiality provisions of the Judiciary Law.

Chairperson.

The chairperson of the commission ~~shall~~will preside at any meeting of the commission at which the chairperson is present, and, if absent, ~~shall~~will designate another member to preside. ~~The chairperson shall~~ If the chairperson is unable to fulfill the duties of office, or if the position of chairperson becomes vacant, the longest-serving commissioner able to fulfill the duties of chairperson will act as chairperson. The chairperson will be the sole spokesperson for the commission unless ~~unable to so act, in which case~~ the chairperson ~~shall designate~~designates another member of the commission or counsel as spokesperson in a specific regard. In any event, the confidentiality mandated by Section 66(1) of the Judiciary Law, ~~article 3-A, section 66(1)~~ shall will be maintained by all members and staff. The chairperson ~~shall~~will have such other functions and duties as may be assigned by the commission, or are customary for the office.

Counsel.

(a) The commission may appoint, and at its pleasure remove, a counsel and such other staff as may be required from time to time, and prescribe their powers and duties. The commission shall fix the compensation of its staff and provide for reimbursement of their expenses within the amounts appropriated by law.

~~The counsel of the commission shall~~(b) The commission's counsel will assist the chairperson; supervise the implementation of the commission's rules and resolutions of the commission; organize, oversee and implement report to the commission on the investigation of candidates, report upon investigations to the commission; supervise other commission staff, if any, any other commission staff; serve, (when present,) as secretary of commission meetings; and fulfill such other duties as may be delegated by the commission or chairperson.

Commission membership is governed by Section 62 of the Judiciary Law. No later than 30 days prior to the occurrence of a vacancy on the commission, notice will be published on the commission's website, distributed to the press, and sent in writing to the relevant appointing authority, together with a statement that the ultimate objectives of wide diversity and broad outreach in the nomination of well-qualified candidates for the Court of Appeals are best served by a commission that itself reflects the diversity of New York's communities.

Meetings.

~~(a)~~ Meetings of the commission may be called by the chairperson, or a majority of the members of the commission, by written or electronic notice to the other members specifying the time and place of meeting. Such notice ~~shall~~will be ~~mailed or sent~~given at least seven days before the time specified, except that a meeting may be held on shorter notice, and by ~~telephonic~~telephone notice, if it is impractical to do otherwise. Notice of meeting may be waived by any member before or after the meeting, and attendance at a meeting by a member ~~shall~~will constitute a waiver of notice. At least one meeting of the commission ~~shall~~will be held in every calendar year.

~~(b) Meetings of the commission may be held without notice whenever the commission, at a previous meeting, shall have designated the time and place for the meeting.~~

Quorum for meetings.

(a) At least 10 members of the commission—a quorum, according to Section 62(6) of the Judiciary Law ~~states that a quorum shall consist of 10 members of the commission. Ten members~~

~~of the commission must, therefore, must be present, either in person or by telephone, at the time any~~ a vote of the full commission is taken. ~~In the event that it is impractical for a quorum to be physically present for such a vote, except as to the selection or elimination of nominees, the chairperson may direct that the members be polled by telephone and a vote so taken shall have the same force and effect as a vote taken when a quorum is physically present. For the consideration and selection of candidates, a quorum must be physically present.~~

(b) In the event that seven or more members are present in person at a duly called meeting at which a quorum fails to appear, those members who are present at such meeting are constituted as a committee of the commission, and are authorized to conduct all business of the commission and enact resolutions on behalf of the commission, except as to the consideration and selection ~~or elimination of nominees of candidates~~; provided that the absent members of the commission are given prompt ~~telephonic or written~~ notice of any action taken by the committee; and provided that any action taken by that committee is ratified at the next commission meeting at which at least 10 members are present in person or by telephone, or is ratified by a writing, or writings, signed by all the absent members of the commission.

Solicitation of candidates.

~~(a)~~ In its solicitation of candidates, the commission's objective is to have broad outreach in order to enable the commission to identify qualified candidates from a wide range of New York's diverse communities. When the commission has been duly notified that a vacancy on the Court of Appeals has occurred, or is about to occur, the following steps directed to achieving the commission's objective will be taken.

(a) The chairperson and counsel shall will arrange for broadly disseminated public notice of the existence of the vacancy, ~~of~~ the procedure to be followed by prospective candidates in order to be considered by the commission, the procedure to be followed by the public to bring qualified candidates to the attention of the commission, and of any date deadline that has been ~~set~~ after which fixed for the receipt of questionnaires may no longer be accepted.

(b) The chairperson will request a meeting between the commission and the governor or governor-elect to discuss the vacancy and efforts to recruit candidates.

(c) Each member of the commission, and counsel, shall will encourage persons who may be well qualified to ~~become candidates for nomination to~~ fill a vacancy on the Court of Appeals ~~vacancy by filing to file~~ an executed questionnaire ~~with~~ for consideration by the commission. In seeking recommendations or encouraging prospective candidates, members of the commission, and counsel, should make clear that no commitment or support for nomination is implied. A commissioner will disclose to the commission that he or she has encouraged a candidate to apply to fill a vacancy when that candidate is first considered by the commission.

(d) The chairperson additionally may appoint a search committee, comprised of commissioners, which will solicit recommendations from the legal community to enhance candidate outreach.

(e) The commission will disseminate the notice of vacancy in at least the following ways:

(1) Announce the vacancy to the media.

(2) Announce the vacancy to bar associations in the State of New York urging them to take special efforts to notify their members.

(3) Announce the vacancy to deans of New York law schools, urging them to take special efforts to notify faculty and other eligible candidates.

(4) Encourage members of the public to identify qualified candidates.

(5) Place official notice on the commission's website, and request the posting of the official notice on court websites, the Governor's website and the Attorney General's website.

(6) Send the notice to the Speaker of the New York State Assembly and the President Pro Tempore of the New York State Senate, urging them to take special efforts to notify their members and constituents.

(f) The questionnaire will be made available on the commission's website.

(g) Prior to the commencement of the initial screening process for a vacancy, the commission, through subcommittees or other arrangement as appointed by the chairperson, may convene an informational meeting, open to the public, in each of the four Judicial Departments of the State. The date, time and place of the informational meeting will be published on the commission's website and distributed to the press as part of the notice of the vacancy or in a separate public notice. At the informational meeting, the commission will discuss the requirements for the position and the commission's procedures and rules for submitting recommendations of qualified candidates; copies of the commission's rules also will be made available. At that time, the public may be heard (orally or in writing) about community needs, the general qualifications for judicial office and the nominating process.

Investigation of candidates.

(a) In order to receive consideration by the commission, candidates must set forth and verify all the information called for by the questionnaire furnished by the commission, and execute the accompanying forms by which the commission is given access to information or records that may ~~be~~ otherwise be confidential.

(b) Counsel ~~shall cause such inquiry to be made as to~~ will investigate the background and qualifications of a candidate as is necessary to determine that all statutory or constitutional criteria for appointment to the Court of Appeals are met, and to ensure that the commission ~~shall have~~ has the fullest possible information available for its deliberations with respect to the candidate.

(c) Counsel is authorized to utilize, on the commission's behalf, the power granted to the commission by ~~section~~ Section 64(3) of the Judiciary Law, to request ~~from any agency of the State~~ assistance, information and data from any State agency, and, specifically, shall procure the assistance of the State Police in acquiring background information with respect to candidates.

(d) In the event that the chairperson, counsel or any member believes that the power granted by ~~section~~ Section 64(2) of the Judiciary Law to administer oaths or affirmations, or to subpoena witnesses or documents, should be utilized, they shall request the authority to do so from the commission at a duly constituted meeting; except that, in the event the chairperson believes that any such power should be utilized on an emergency basis, the chairperson may do so pursuant to the agreement of a majority of the commission given by telephone or in writing. Subpoenas, or other process, issued on behalf of the commission ~~shall~~ will be signed by the chairperson or, if unavailable, by counsel; and the chairperson (or a member of the commission designated by the chairperson) and counsel are hereby empowered to administer oaths or affirmations on behalf of the commission.

Consideration of candidates.

(a) Commissioner impartiality.

(1) A commissioner will consider each applicant in an impartial, objective manner, and disclose to the commission any relationship with an applicant that has a bearing on the nomination process.

(2) A commissioner will not be influenced other than by facts or opinion that are relevant to the judicial qualifications of the applicants, and will promptly report to the chairperson any attempt to influence a commissioner other than by fact or opinion.

(3) A commissioner will not individually communicate, orally or in writing, with an applicant about the application or the process, from the time the application is submitted until completion of the final vote on the nominations.

(b) Initial screening procedures.

(1) The commission will establish a date by which questionnaires must be filed for a particular vacancy, and after that date the procedures for initial screening of candidates ~~shall~~will commence.

(2) Each member of the commission ~~shall~~will be furnished ~~with~~ a copy of each application received, together with any further necessary background information, and the chairperson ~~shall~~will request each member to provide prompt written advice as to the names of those candidates that the member believes merit further consideration as part of the final nomination process. The chairperson's request ~~shall~~will indicate the date by which the members should submit such names, ~~and should remind each member of the desirability of restricting the number of candidates receiving further consideration.~~ Candidates whose names have not been submitted to the chairperson by at least one member, within the specified time, or who are not proposed for further consideration by the chairperson, shall not be given further consideration for the particular vacancy.

(3) The chairperson ~~shall~~will call a meeting of the commission, for a date following the date by which the members are to have proposed candidates who merit further consideration, ~~the purpose of which will be to assess the relative merit~~merits of the remaining candidates and to determine the procedures to be followed for their further consideration. ~~Such procedures may include the use of panels of commission members to conduct an initial interview. Following the utilization of the procedures then adopted, the commission shall meet again to determine the number of candidates that may be feasibly interviewed by the full commission, and~~ The commission thereafter will meet to determine which candidates will be ~~so interviewed,~~interviewed by the commission as part of the nomination procedures described in subdivision (b)(c) of this section. Each candidate to be interviewed will be asked to file with the commission, prior to the interview, a sworn financial statement in a form supplied by the commission.

(4) Notwithstanding the above, the commission may employ a two-step application procedure in which a candidate's initial submission consists of a short-form questionnaire, including a resume, a statement setting forth the candidate's qualifications and interest in seeking nomination, and any other materials the candidate wishes to include. Each member of the commission will be furnished with a copy of each initial submission received, together with any further background information that may be pertinent, and the chairperson will request each member to provide prompt advice as to the names of those candidates that the member believes merit an interview as part of the final nomination process. The chairperson's request will indicate the date by which the members should submit such names. If the commission determines that a candidate merits an interview by the full commission, that candidate will be asked to submit a full questionnaire. Screening of the candidate would then proceed as set forth above.

~~(b) Nomination procedures.~~

(c) Nomination procedures.

(1) If the nominations are for the office of Chief Judge, the number of candidates to be nominated ~~shall~~will be seven pursuant to ~~section~~Section 63(2)(a) of the Judiciary Law. If the nominations are for the office of Associate Judge, the number of candidates to be nominated ~~shall~~will be the maximum number specified by ~~section~~Section 63 (2)(b) or (c) of the Judiciary Law, unless fewer candidates receive the affirmative vote of at least eight members of the commission.

~~(2) When the number of candidates has been reduced by the commission to a number feasible for interview by the full commission, as part of the final nomination procedures, the chairperson shall call a meeting, or series of meetings, for the purpose of considering candidates and determining those to be nominated by the commission to the Governor, and each remaining candidate shall be invited to be interviewed by the commission. Each remaining candidate will be requested to file with the commission, prior to the candidate's interview, a sworn financial statement in a form supplied by the commission. Thereafter, the commission will~~Following completion of all interviews, the commission will meet and discuss the relative merits of the remaining candidates and attempt to reach a consensus as to which candidates should be nominated (bearing in mind that each nomination must have the affirmative vote of eight members). In the event a consensus is not reached as to all nominations, the balloting procedure described ~~below shall~~ in Appendix I will commence. The balloting procedure will be utilized only as to ~~those nominations which~~ that have not been made by consensus.

~~(3) Each member of the commission present, including the chairperson, will be given a ballot which will contain the names of each remaining candidate in alphabetical order. Each member voting shall place a number next to the name of each candidate, which number indicates the member's order of preference; that is, next to the member's first choice the member will place the number "1."~~

~~(4) The numbers each candidate receives shall be added, and the aggregate is referred to, hereinafter, as the candidate's "points." In order for a candidate to be nominated, he must be among those receiving the lowest number of points, and he must have the affirmative votes of eight members of the commission—pursuant to section 63(3) of the Judiciary Law. For example, in the case of a nomination for the office of Chief Judge, and assuming that no nominations have been made by consensus, a nominee must be among the seven receiving the lowest number of points (in the aggregate) and must be among the seven receiving the least points on each of eight members' ballots.~~

~~(5) If this first balloting yields an indecisive result as to one or more nominations because of a tie, or because of a candidate who has received among the lowest number of points has not received eight affirmative votes, additional balloting shall be conducted. On ballots subsequent to the first one, there shall be listed only those candidates not receiving nomination on a prior ballot or by consensus. No candidate shall be considered nominated if he or she has received a higher number of points than a candidate as to whom the result is indecisive. The members will~~ again vote by listing their order of preference. This balloting procedure will be continued until all nominees are selected for the particular vacancy.

~~(6)~~ Following the completion of a ballot, the chairperson may call for further discussion on the relative merits of all candidates not previously nominated. At any time following the completion of the first ballot, in the case of a vacancy in the office of Associate Judge, a member may offer a resolution reducing the number of candidates to be nominated, within the range stated in section 63(2)(b) or (c) of the Judiciary Law.

(3) The objectives of the nomination and voting procedures are:

(i) to ensure that the commission thoroughly considers and evaluates each candidate;

(ii) to ensure that the commission is impartial in its deliberations;

(iii) to promote consensus in the selection of nominees; and

(iv) to ensure that each nominee receives at least eight affirmative votes from the commissioners, as required by Section 63(3) of the Judiciary Law.

~~(7)~~ All votes taken with respect to nominations will be by secret ballot.

~~(8)~~ Pursuant to ~~section~~Section 65(4) of the Judiciary Law, upon the completion by the commission of its consideration and evaluation of the qualifications of a candidate, there ~~shall~~will be no reconsideration of that candidate for the vacancy for which the candidate was considered, except with the concurrence of nine members of the commission. For this purpose, the commission will not be considered to have completed its consideration and evaluation of the qualifications of a candidate until the conclusion of the meeting at which the candidate was nominated or eliminated for the particular vacancy.

(d) Consideration of the qualifications of a candidate.

In considering and evaluating each candidate's qualifications for the Court of Appeals, the commission will consider criteria and standards including character, temperament, professional aptitude and experience. Commissioners and commission staff will not discriminate against any candidate on the basis of any legally impermissible factor.

(e) Commitment to diversity.

The commission is committed to considering nominees for the Court of Appeals with outstanding personal and professional qualifications who reflect the diversity of New York's communities including, but not limited to, diversity in race, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation and geography. A diverse Judiciary ensures that a broad array of perspectives and experiences are brought to the bench; reinforces public trust and confidence in the fairness of the justice system and the administration of justice; and ultimately enhances the delivery of justice and the Judiciary's credibility and moral authority.

7100.8

Report to the Governor.

Following the conclusion of the meeting of the commission at which the nomination procedure has been concluded, ~~and the appropriate number of candidates nominated by the commission,~~ the chairperson and counsel ~~shall~~will prepare, in consultation with the commission, and the chairperson will sign, a single written report to the Governor or Governor-elect, as the case may be, which ~~shall~~will contain the commission's nominations, ~~and which report shall be in conformance with section~~Section 63(3) of the Judiciary Law. The report will set forth (a) the relevant accomplishments of each nominee, and include major legal matters in which the nominee participated, as well as other notable professional qualities that the commission considered important in determining that each was well qualified and fit to serve as the Chief or an Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, as the case may be; and (b) the efforts made by the commission and counsel to publicize each vacancy and to solicit applications from the broadest group of well qualified candidates. However, the report will not compromise the confidentiality of commission proceedings, as mandated by Section 66 of the Judiciary Law.

Amendment or waiver of rules.

~~Any~~Consistent with applicable law, any rule adopted by the commission may be amended ~~or revoked by the commission, by the vote of a majority of a quorum present at a duly constituted meeting. Any rule of the commission may be waived by the commission, revoked, or~~ waived in a specific instance ~~by the commission~~ by the affirmative vote of eight members of the commission present at a duly constituted meeting.

7100.11

Website.

The commission will maintain a website for the purpose of communicating with the public and to aid in soliciting candidates pursuant to section 7100.6 of these rules. The website will contain contact information for the commission's counsel, an overview of the commission, a compilation of the commission's statutory authority and its rules, and a directory of current commission members. The website will also contain a record of recent commission press releases, a list of past nominees and other non-confidential information of interest to the public. Additionally, the website will set forth the procedure by which members of the public may (a) bring qualified candidates for vacancies on the Court of Appeals to the attention of the commission; and (b) sign up to receive commission press releases and notices by email. The website will be maintained by commission staff at the direction of the chairperson. Access to the commission's internet security and privacy policy will be clearly posted on the website, and all information posted to the website will comply with the confidentiality requirements mandated by Section 66 of the Judiciary Law.

Part 7100 Appendix I

Voting procedures.

(a) Each member of the commission present, including the chairperson, will be given a ballot, which will contain the names of each remaining candidate in alphabetical order. Each member voting will place a number next to the name of 15 candidates he or she considers well qualified, which number indicates the member's order of preference; that is, next to the member's first choice the member will place the number "15."¹ Members will not assign a number to candidates other than those 15 candidates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the commission, with the approval of at least eight commissioners, may select a different number of candidates to receive votes.

(b) The numbers each candidate receives will be added, and the aggregate is referred to, hereinafter, as the candidate's "points." In order for a candidate to be nominated, he or she must be a candidate receiving the greatest number of points, and have the affirmative votes of eight members of the commission pursuant to Section 63(3) of the Judiciary Law. If the candidate or candidates receiving the greatest number of points are nominated, then, if a candidate receiving the second greatest number of points also received the affirmative vote of eight commissioners, that candidate will also be nominated. This process will be repeated with regard to the candidate receiving the next highest point total until no candidate has received the affirmative vote of eight commissioners.

¹ This procedure assumes that the commission has not changed the number of candidates to be voted on and that no nominations have been made by consensus. If, for example, the commission selects four nominees by consensus, each member voting will place a number next to the name of eleven candidates he or she considers well qualified.

(c) If this first balloting yields an indecisive result as to one or more nominations because of a tie, or because a candidate who has received among the greatest number of points has not received eight affirmative votes, additional balloting will be conducted. On ballots subsequent to the first, there shall be listed only those candidates not receiving nomination on a prior ballot or by consensus. No candidate will be considered nominated if he or she has received a lower number of points than a candidate as to whom the result is indecisive. The members will again vote by listing their order of preference. The number of candidates assigned a numerical vote by each member will be reduced by the number of nominations that have been made. For instance, if the commissioners has voted for 15 candidates and the first ballot yields two nominations, on the second ballot members will place a number next to the name of thirteen candidates they consider well qualified, and again that number indicates the member's order of preference; that is, next to the member's first choice the member will place the number "13."

(d) Following the completion of a ballot, the chairperson may call for further discussion on the relative merits of all candidates not previously nominated. At any time following the completion of the first ballot, in the case of a vacancy in the office of Associate Judge, a member may offer a resolution reducing the number of candidates to be nominated, within the range stated in Section 63(2)(b) or (c) of the Judiciary Law. The affirmative votes of eight members of the commission will be required to pass such a resolution.

(e) This balloting procedure will be continued until all nominees are selected for the particular vacancy.

(f) At any time during the voting process, a member may offer a resolution dropping a particular candidate from consideration so long as the number of remaining candidates plus the number of candidates already nominated remains within the range stated in Section 63(2)(b) or (c) in the case of a vacancy in the office of Associate Judge or is at least seven in the case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Judge. The affirmative votes of eight members of the commission will be required to pass such a resolution.
