

Request to Testify at September 17th hearing from Elena Sassower, Director/Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)
e-mailed via the Commission's form & website on Sept. 13th at 11:20 a.m.

"Subject Matter To Be Addressed"

"On July 20, 2011, in testifying before New York's Temporary Commission on Judicial Compensation, I stated, in opposition to judicial pay raises -- and as my concluding words -- "The judiciary of this state is corrupt, pervasively, systemically corrupt." It is -- and the collusion therein by that Commission and by our highest public officers in all three government branches and of the "fourth branch", the press, as well as academia, bar associations, "good government" groups, etc. -- whose consequence, to date, has been the theft of roughly $50 million taxpayer dollars in fraudulent judicial pay raises and ongoing judicial corruption -- directly results from flagrant disregard of the most fundamental conflict of interest rules, as to which there is no enforcement."

"Other Pertinent Information"

"The subject matter to be addressed is readily-verifiable, as it has been meticulously documented by our non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization over the nearly quarter-century of our activism. Such is also readily-accessible, as much of this documentary evidence is posted on our website, www.judgewatch.org. Of particular relevance, our webpages whose hyperlinks are accessible via our top panel 'Latest News', such as:

The foregoing was first brought to the Commission's attention on July 19, 2013 -- and has been the subject of written communication from me -- most importantly, my August 5, 2013 letter entitled 'Keeping the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption True to its Name & Announced Purpose', requesting, inter alia, at page 5, 'a copy of all [the Commission's] 'procedures and rules' -- and...protocol for dealing with conflicts of interest, whether of Commission members, special advisors, or staff.' There has been no response."
