TO: David Kruger, Scheduler for Senator Hoylman:

Following up my phone call moments ago, below & attached is what I e-mailed yesterday to Senator Hoylman, as Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Investigations & Government Operations, and to others on his staff: Laura Morrison, his chief of staff, Mark Furnish, his counsel, and Burton Phillips, his policy director.

I am sending it to you because it includes my request for a meeting, which – as you are the Senator’s scheduler – I’d like to arrange, as soon as possible. Although it is more convenient for me to meet Senator Hoylman in his district office, I would be willing to travel to Albany if he believes it would be more productive to have a joint meeting with Committee Chairman Marcellino – and other legislators.

Thank you.

Attached is the Center for Judicial Accountability's above-entitled letter to you of today's date. It is already posted on its own webpage of our website, www.judgewatch.org, together with the referred-to substantiating evidence. Here's the direct link: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget-2014-2015/jan-7-2014-letter.htm>.

Please advise when you are available to meet with me to discuss and answer questions.

Thank you.
