Re: Cunningham v. United States Marshals
11-3597cv

Dear Ms. Wolfe:

Your office recently forwarded me certain papers received by the Court from my former client in the above-referenced matter, Mr. Benjamin Cunningham.

A covering note indicated that the papers were sent because Court records list me as Mr. Cunningham's counsel. The matter was, however, closed on or about February 2, 2012 when the Court denied appellant's motion to reargue.

Upon such completion of the legal proceedings for which I had been retained, my connection with the case terminated. See Hirsch v. Weisman, 189 A.D.2d 642, 645, 592 N.Y.S.2d 337, 339 (1st Dep't 1993).

I have not subsequently been retained by Mr. Cunningham, and I do not represent him now.

Accordingly, I have to advise the Court that I am neither authorized to act with respect to the papers forwarded to me nor responsible to do so.

Should further information be required, please be assured of a prompt and forthcoming response.

Responsible,

Daniel A. Eigerman
