RE: Records Request: Committee on the Profession and the Courts

Dear Ms. Kerby:

In or about December 1993, then Chief Judge Judith Kaye appointed a “Committee on the Profession and the Courts”, chaired by Louis A. Craco, Esq., which in November 1995 rendered a Final Report to the Chief Judge.

Pages 6-7 of the Report contain a section entitled “Public Hearings”, whose first paragraph is as follows:

“The Committee held public hearings, limited to users of legal services, in the Fall of 1994. Separate, advertised hearings were conducted in Buffalo, Manhattan, Albany, Central Islip and Syracuse. The advertisements inviting interested individuals or groups to speak at the hearings also publicized a ‘1-800’ telephone line that the Committee kept open to receive public commentary from those who could not or preferred not to appear at the hearings. The Committee also invited written materials from the public and received a substantial response, all of which was circulated to all the members. A list of those testifying at the hearings is contained in Appendix C.”

Pursuant to §124 of the Chief Administrator’s Rules and Public Officers Law, Article VI [Freedom of Information Law (F.O.I.L.)], this is to request:

(1) access to the transcripts and/or videos of the Committee’s public hearings;

- (2) access to the “commentary” the public furnished the Committee via the 1-800 telephone line, particularly with respect to attorney grievance/disciplinary procedures;
- (3) access to the “written materials” the public furnished the Committee, particularly with respect to attorney grievance/disciplinary procedures;
- (4) access to the “public comment” to the Committee’s November 1995 Final Report, received in the 90-day period for “public comment”, announced by then Chief Judge Kaye and the Office of Court Administration, particularly with respect to attorney grievance/disciplinary procedures.

Pursuant to §124.6 of the Chief Administrator’s Rules and Public Officers Law §89.3, your response is required “within five business days” of your receipt of this request. I would appreciate if you e-mailed it to me at elena@judgewatch.org.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
