RE: Additional Queries on Federal Judicial Discipline

Thank you, Ms. Gray, for your prompt e-mail response to my March 31, 2008 memo, with its queries on federal judicial discipline.

Kindly respond to two additional queries:

(1) Has American Judicature Society issued any statements or taken any position on the resolution to impeach U.S. District Judge Manuel Real, other than what appears at the end of its October 28, 2006 editorial "Politics and progress in federal judicial accountability"?;

(2) Has American Judicature Society done any analysis of the revised Code of Conduct for United States Judges, proposed by the Judicial Conference Committee on Codes of Conduct, and/or responded to that Committee's public notice inviting comment on its proposed revision?

Your further prompt response, by fax and/or e-mail, would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you.

P.S. In the event Professor Burbank did not forward you his April 26, 2008 e-mail to me, a copy is annexed.

Subject: Re: 2nd Query: AJS Posting of your May 27, 2004 Letter to the Editor of the New York Times

I am in England and not able to handle my e-mail correspondence as i do at home. To knowledge, the Times did not publish my letter.
